CARFLEO CONFERENCE

Queen of the Apostles Retreat Centre

Last year’s CARFLEO conference, facilitated by Sr. Priscilla Solomon, examined the theme “Creating a Culture of Hope: Journeying towards Truth and Reconciliation”. At the end of the conference you asked for more!

This year, we will continue that pilgrimage according to the three principles outlined by Sister Priscilla: Recognize, Respect and Reconcile. Our guide will be Stan Fontaine.

Stan, originally from Sagkeeng First Nation, matriculated at College Ste. Joseph in Otterburne, Manitoba. He graduated from the University of Manitoba with a B.A. in Philosophy and Psychology and continued his studies at St. Paul’s University graduating with a Bachelor of Theology and a M.A. in Missiology. He has obtained numerous certifications, including in counseling addictions, adult education, business management and accounting, to name just a few.

Stan more recently presented at the Building Bridges and Elders Dialogue conferences. Currently situated at the Kateri Tekakwitha Aboriginal Catholic Church in Winnipeg, Manitoba, Stan is engaged in the search to find resonances between the Catholic faith and aspects of Indigenous culture.

Registration starting in January, 2018
